YOUNG ATTORNEY ACTS AS JUDGE

"Pete" Hise Presides On Bench
With Distinction—Slide
Trail Convicts

Attorney O. M. Hise, one of the "baby" members of the Richmond bar, is being complimented by his friends upon the fine work he did while presiding as special judge on Wednesday morning during Judge Shackelford's absence. Attorney Hise was agreed upon by attorneys in a case to preside and though attorneys Greenleaf and Smith, on different sides, "shot" hard and fast at the judge, His Honor, Judge Hise, acquitted himself creditably and well, attorneys who watched the young lawyer's work say. The case tried before him was that of Smith & Rommiger vs. the R. H. Chrisman Co., of Berea. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $50 for two cars and $24 for rent of a barn.

Otis Stevens, of the Red Lick section, was tried and convicted in federal court on a charge of having a moonshine still on his place. Principal evidence against Stevens is said to have been that a slide track was found on his farm, going toward the still. Stevens was given a fine of $250 and 90 days in jail.

The grand jury returned its sessions Thursday and had a large number of witnesses before it.

TAKES ISSUE WITH SULLIVAN'S LETTER

My Dear Mr. Editor:

For two evenings in succession you printed articles by Mr. J. A. Sullivan. I read them with interest but beg to take issue with him in some of his statements. He refers to four women property owners whose homes touch or face the campus and says that only one of these, Mrs. Ellen V. Gibson, took Normal students into their homes. Of the other three, one is now dead, one away from home and I doubt if the other would answer Mr. Sullivan. Mrs. William Irvine had a Normal student in her home for quite a time. Mrs. Tutt Burnham has for years had not only from three to six boy students at her home, but some of the teachers as well, and while I am not in a position to say that Mrs. Watts has had students in her house, yet I do know that her extensive grounds and garden have been used constantly by the students to rest in, to read in and to otherwise enjoy—and that they were welcome.—Contributed.

DEATH CALLS ANOTHER EX-MADISON WOMAN

Mrs. Della Shifflett, wife of James Shifflett, formerly of Madison, but now residing near Bloomington, Ill., died Sunday, October 22. Her body was brought back Monday night, accompanied by her husband and four children. W. M. Jenkins, the Newby undertaker, met the body at Richmond. The remains were taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Perkins, at Baldwin, where funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2 o'clock by Rev. Young, of Richmond. Deceased was 44 years of age and a member of the Christian church. She leaves her husband and seven children, father, mother, three brothers and two sisters to mourn her loss. She was laid to rest in the Perkins grave yard, near her old home. Mr. Shifflett and children returned to their home Friday.

Gas Fumes Overcome Youngster
Wayne McCune, 12 years old, son of Mr. McCune, an employee of the Luxon Garage, was partially overcome by gas fumes Wednesday afternoon when he climbed up in a truck in the garage. The top had been screwed off the gasoline tank and inhaling the fumes soon put the youngster to sleep. Dr. Jasper was sent for and soon had the patient aroused. He was in school Thursday morning, seemingly none the worse off for the experience.

To Gain A Good Reputation

The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you appear. That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturers has been fully up to the high standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe to take.

11 BAPTIZED AFTER EVENING SERVICE

The big revival service at the First Christian church reached high tide in the service Thursday night in the matter of results when fourteen responded to the gospel invitation. Long before the hour for opening, the big auditorium was filled with an interested audience. A crowd almost equal to that of last Sunday night heard Dr. Simpson and Miss White. Besides Miss White's solo, the musical feature was the male quartet. The service was probably the best from every point of view yet held in the series and the big audience felt the thrill of the response at the close.

The sermon was an eloquent and compelling message to the unsaved on the subject of faith, and was probably the best effort of the evangelist. The male quartet sang "In the Garden" and Miss White "Is Your Heart Right With God," while the big chorus gave the finest support to the singers. A beautiful and impressive baptismal service in which 11 were baptized, was held at the conclusion of the evening.

The series will continue through Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday. The special feature Sunday will be the Decision Day in the Bible School.

THREE BOOZE CARS HELD BY OFFICERS

Patrolmen Catch A Ford From Ohio But Owner Gets Away and Hasn't Come For It

Three "whisky" cars are now being held in Richmond by officers, waiting for their owners to come and claim them with proof of ownership.

Richmond patrolmen the other night caught a Ford touring car with an Ohio license, containing a keg of moonshine. The car was driven by a local colored boy named Noland, who said that a white man whose name he did not know had engaged him to drive it. When the officers got the car the keg was about empty, most of the white booze having been delivered, it was thought. On account of having no search warrant, the work of the officers went for naught and Noland was freed in police court, as the Court of Appeals has held in its decisions that officers must be armed with warrants to stop any car and investigate it.

The car is being held, however, and it is hardly thought that the owner is going to come here after it. The local officers say that they have reason to believe this car has been sent here a number of times with liquor. The officers are also holding an Overland car which they found on Water street some weeks ago with some moonshine brandy. It has not been claimed. Then Sheriff Deatherage is holding the big rum runner's Studebaker car, waiting for its alleged owner in Cincinnati to come down after it.

CATECHISM ON THE ROAD TAX

Some Questions Which The People Are Asking And Answers To Them

Why should I vote for the 20c road tax?

It will make good roads throughout Madison county.

What roads will be built from the 20c tax?

The Irvine pike, the Boonesboro pike, the Tate's Creek pike, the Lancaster pike, the remainder of the Lexington pike and the Richmond-McKee pike.

Who will keep up these pikes after they are rebuilt?

The State of Kentucky and the U. S. Government.

Why will this make other roads in the county better?

All of the present 25c road tax, the county machinery and road equipment can and will then be used to build and repair the cross pikes and dirt roads in the county.

Example: The city of Richmond paved its main thoroughfare, leaving the city's regular street tax for side and cross streets, and today her side and cross streets are better than Main street was previously.

Which of the State Aid projects will be built first?

The Citizens' Committee, and the Fiscal Court promise you that they will distribute the 20c road tax fund on each of the state aid projects in proportion to the road's requirements and as the State and U. S. Government will accept them and that no one road shall have preference.

A farmer asks—how will this good road tax benefit me?

You will have better market and selling facilities, the price of your farm land will advance under good roads.

Example: The stock buyer goes on a bad road to the most isolated farmer to buy bargains.

A laborer asks—how will this good roads tax help me?

It will be the means of about $600,000 being expended for roads in Madison county and labor will receive the larger part of this money—this in addition to what is now being spent for roads.

A business man asks—how will this good road tax help me?

It will make your store or office accessible to more people. Your business depends largely on the number of people you are able to serve. Good roads will help you.

Will this 20c tax benefit the mothers of the county?

It certainly will, as good roads mean less time spent on the road to and from school, greater safety on the trip.

Now is the time to make this forward movement. Why?

Because we are paying into the State Treasury at Frankfort about $42,000 per year for automobile license, one cent per gallon gasoline and 3 per cent ad valorem tax.

Some may say this system is wrong but offer no way to correct it. We can get this money back from Frankfort and spend on our roads if we vote the 20c road tax. If we don't other counties will take advantage of our inaction and they are doing it right now and will continue to do so if we don't get busy.

Everybody Benefits More or Less at Sometime in Someway. Why?

On account of the saving of time. Suppose today you have business in some part of the county, or someone in another part of the county has business with you. Say the trip now takes two hours, would not good roads cut the time in half, with a big saving of wear and tear on you and your vehicle and of power, no matter what kind you used? If you saved an hour's time going for the doctor, or in his coming to you, it might mean a life.

Will our 20c road tax fund be paid out wastefully or in a business like way?

Every cent of this fund will be in connection with the State Road Department, paid out to contractors on specific road work at the lowest bid in an absolutely economical and business like way.

How much money does the 20c tax raise for Madison county?

Assuming that Madison county is assessed for 6 years at $25,000,000, the tax will bring from taxpayers $300,000 and from the State Aid Fund $327,000 and from the Federal Government

Started Fire With Gasoline

Corbin, Oct. 27—Mrs. Grant Alsop and her infant in arms are dead today as the result of an attempt to start a fire with gasoline. So far as could be learned, Mrs. Alsop was carrying her child and at the same time trying to start a blaze in the kitchen stove. The flame leaped out when she poured the gasoline on and caught her clothing and that of the baby. She screamed for help and rushed outside, but was dead before assistance could be given her. The house burned to the ground.

PURPLES ARE OFF FOR NICHOLASVILLE

The Madison Hi football squad boarded the train for Nicholasville a little after noon Friday full of confidence as to their game with the high school eleven of that city which will be played in the afternoon. The boys, however, are not overconfident, as this has already played an important hand in their failure to win so far. The whole team is expected to put up a stiff fight that will be hard to match in Nicholasville. Joe Reeves is back fighting with his usual punch. Coach Lassiter has announced he will be started at one of the half-back positions which is indeed encouraging news. Farley, however, is still on the sick list and may not be able to return this season.

After starting the season rather poorly Nicholasville is said to have staged a come-back, organizing an eleven that is among the best of them. They were defeated early in the season by Lancaster to a tune of 78 to 0, but are greatly improved since that time. Madison held Lancaster to two earned touchdowns last Friday. Last year the conditions were exactly reversed.

Nicholasville came here with an eleven which had held the strong Somerset team to a close score the week before, but were turned back by Madison who scored two touchdowns to the visitors' none.

The locals, it is remembered, have the same circumstances to face, as they fought well against Lancaster last week. It is hoped that history will not be repeated as to this incident.

Practically the entire squad made the trip to Nicholasville. There has always been keen rivalry between the two schools. The prospect of witnessing a good game has caused many local fans to accompany the boys.

The line-up to start against Nicholasville is as follows:

Hacker re; Wells rt; Hurst or Boen rg; Captain Allman c; Bowler lg; John Allman lt; Gentry le; Huguley qb; Clouse fb; Reeves rh and Moberly ll.

Ike Says Lexington Has

Many Crooks

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 27—Ike Miller, who is serving a three months sentence in the Clark County jail for violation of the liquor laws, declared today that there were so many crooks around Lexington he had no idea who it could have been that attacked his home and fired on his wife last Sunday. Miller added that he telephoned his wife to open the doors of their home to anyone looking for liquor. They would find none. Lexington police are of the opinion that the attack was made by whisky runners who were looking for liquor they thought was concealed about the farm.

Richmond A Little Careless As To The Normal

What other great acquisition of Richmond has it treated so carelessly as the Normal School? When Central University came here Lancaster was soon widened by the city from its being a very narrow street to its present wide and handsome proportion, and also rebuilt, and Dr. K. L. Breck opened up lands and Oak Street constructed.

When the L. & N. came here from Lancaster, or K. C. from Winchester or R. N. L. & B. from Nicholasville, all new city streets were opened in the vicinity of their depots respectively, and see how many happy homes of good citizens now are located on these streets so opened. I know that there was violent opposition here to the opening of each and every one of these streets and the professional anti's of those days stood on hind legs and pawed the air with their front ones, and howled and used the usual arguments advanced against all progress-steps, but today they would not if they could tear down the houses on or close one of those streets.

When the Normal School came here in 1906, Richmond had no sewerage system at all, and the Regents were greatly bothered about what to do for the Normal. We had no money appropriated for that purpose at all. The truth is no great institution of any kind should be located where there is not already a sewerage system, or the local community is willing to build such system.

The Board investigated and decided that the best thing to do was to install a septic tank system on the campus and this did fairly well until one of our neighbors who had it seems a most highly developed pair of nostrils did one or more times detect an odor rather unpleasant to his keen nostrils, but which odor did not disturb his other good neighbors or their families at all. Said keen scented neighbor acting under no advice, took himself before our Grand Jury and had the Normal School indicted as a public nuisance and this presented a new problem to the Regents. All of them were justly angered at such treatment. We had no doubt but that we could win the case before a jury of Madison County both on the facts and the law. I knew that the grand jurors had been misled, but the Board did not want a legal controversy and concluded to build a sewer system which, as it did not have the money, made the Regents personally liable for the debt. Mrs. William Irvine and Mary Jane Walker permitted the Normal to run its large sewer main through the valley on their lands adjoining Second Street and it runs hence to where it now empties into the sewer built by the city. The Mayor and City Council acted toward the Normal in this sewerage matter, as if the Normal were an interloper, and that sewer so built by the Normal is now a part of the city sewerage system and used by all housekeepers who desire to, though the city has not paid one cent to the Normal for said sewer now so used and controlled by the city. Besides, while the new streets of Richmond were being built here two years ago, the Board of Regents permitted the roads and drives to be used by the public at large and this use about wore them out though the roads and drives to be used by as private property as those of Mrs. Watts or those of any other citizen.
